

Submitter: Orval Gingerich, Associate Dean for International Programs, International Programs

Message: Nobel Peace Laureate (2004), Dr. Wangari Maathai, will be the keynote speaker at the 18th Annual Nobel Peace Prize Forum on Friday afternoon, March 10th. Other speakers include Christine Todd Whitman (former governor of New Jersey and chief of the EPA) and Michael Osterhom (internationally recognized expert on bio-terrorism and pandemic outbreaks). A full schedule of speakers and registration is available on the forum web site: <http://peaceprizeforum.luther.edu/>

The Forum, hosted by Luther College, Decorah, IA, March 10-11, is co-sponsored by Augsburg College and four other Peace Prize Forum consortium colleges. A bus to and from Luther College will be available for all registered Augsburg College faculty, staff and students. The cost of the bus as well as room and board at the conference is included in the registration fee.

Read about Nobel Peace Laureate, Wangari Maathai, in an article published by Heifer International at: <http://www.heifer.org/site/c.edJRKQNiFiG/b.1124593/>

Call Event Services at extension 1104 with your questions.

Subject: Spring 2006 GenEd Skills Consultations

Submitter: Theresa L Martin, Administrative Assistant, Center for Teaching and Learning

Message:

All full and part-time faculty who teach courses that contain a speaking, writing, critical thinking, or quantitative reasoning graduation skill component are required to have attended a "consultation" on the particular skill. For spring semester, faculty members may teach skill courses provided they attend a February session. (If you have attended an appropriate skills consultation in the past it is not necessary to attend again.)

Critical Thinking: Wednesday, February 1, 3:30 in Riverside
Writing: Monday, February 6, 3:30 in Cedar
Quantitative Reasoning: Wednesday, February 8, 3:30 in the Augsburg Room
Speaking: Thursday, February 9, 3:30 in Riverside

PLEASE PRE-REGISTER. To reserve a space call x1229 or e-mail martin@augsborg.edu

---

Subject: 9th Annual M. Anita Gay Hawthorne Jazz and Poetry

Submitter: Trena L Bolden Fields, Director, Pan-Afrikan Student Services

Message: The Pan-Afrikan Center and the Pan-Afrikan Student Union present

"Passion and Purpose: The 9th Annual M. Anita Gay Hawthorne Jazz and Poetry Bash"

Friday, February 3, 2006
5:00 p.m. reception - 6:30 p.m. program

This will be a special evening of jazz and poetry celebrating the life and vision of M. Anita Gay Hawthorne, featuring art by Audra Johnson, a silent auction, live music performances by The Foundation and poetic expressions from the Afrikan Diaspora.

Proceeds will go to the M. Anita Gay Hawthorne Endowed Fund.

Please RSVP to 612-330-1022 by February 1, 2006.

Subject: Interviewing Workshop - Wednesday

Submitter: Sandra E Tilton, Employer Relations Coordinator, Center for Service Work and Learning

Message: Center for Service, Work and Learning will be sponsoring an Interviewing workshop on Wednesday, February 1st. We are offering this workshop twice in one evening, to give more students an opportunity to attend. The workshop will be held in classroom 101, which is located in Anderson Hall at 4:45 -5:15 p.m. or 5:15 p.m - 6:00 p.m.

No need to register - just drop by! Open to everyone! Questions, please call Sandy at x1472.

Subject: Interested in Engineering? Augsburg's Pre-engineering Program Information

Submitter: Jeffrey E Johnson, Associate Professor, Department Chair, Physics

Message: Considering the pre-engineering program at Augsburg College?

Have questions?

Come hear Ben Sharpe, Director of Admissions (and head of the dual degree program) at the University of Minnesota, discuss the program and answer your questions.

When - Thursday, February 2nd at 12 noon.

Where - Science 21

We hope to see you there!