

Security and Facilities Announcements

No postings

Teaching and Learning

Inter-Religious Dialog: Eid and Rosh Hashanah

SUBMITTED BY ROSS MURRAY, TUTORING SERVICES COORDINATOR, CENTER FOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Augsburg's Inter-Religious Dialog will be celebrating Eid ul-Fitr and Rosh Hashanah on October 1 at 7:00 p.m. in the East Commons. Come hear about these two important holidays for Muslims and Jews, respectively. Sample some traditional holiday food. Dialog in small groups about your religious background.

This event is open to all students, faculty, staff, and community members. We are hoping to get a variety of religions represented, so people of diverse faiths are especially invited to attend. For more information, contact Ross Murray at murray@augsborg.edu.

The Eid and Rosh Hashanah celebrations are the first of several Inter-Religious Dialog events in the academic year.

Back to top

Sabo Symposium: Politics & Public Policy

SUBMITTED BY GARRY W HESSER, PROFESSOR, SOCIOLOGY

Garry Hesser, Sabo Professor of Citizenship & Learning, Dean Farley and President Pribbenow invite you to the Sabo Center's Inaugural event, a conversation with Minnesota legislators who transformed the legislative process and became a national model during the 1970's.

"The Transformation of Minnesota Politics in the 1970s: Context, Content, and Processes", 2-3:30 p.m., Friday, September 26, Hobersten Chapel, Foss Center. Participants include:

Martin Sabo '59 and Jim Pederson '56
Lyall Schwarzkopf, Republican
Bill Kelly and Ray Faricy, DFL
Moderator: Gene Lahanmer, AP reporter [1972-2002]

Sabo Center for Citizenship and Learning Colloquium, September 26, 2-3:30

Back to top

General Announcements

Student Ombuds

SUBMITTED BY KRISHONNAL FULFORD, STUDENT

Do you have questions or concerns about Augsburg, its policies, or actions and don't know where to turn to? The office of Student Ombuds can help. This office works to:

- Clarify or direct students to college policy pertinent to their question
- Refer students to appropriate student services
- Help develop students' problem solving competencies

For assistance, please contact us at ombuds@augsborg.edu or visit us at www.augsborg.edu/ombuds.

Back to top

That's not Garbage, Recycle!

SUBMITTED BY JAY CROSS, MANAGER, AVIANDS

If you have not noticed yet, all of the cups, plates, plastic wear, napkins, straws, and to-go containers being used at Coopers Coffee Shop, Nabo, and Murphy's are biodegradable, compostable, or recyclable. So when you are done, make sure you move past the trash and help make Augsburg a little greener by recycling. Oh, and keep an eye out for our composting venture with Augsburg starting on the Sept. 22. Hey, who said, "It's not easy being green?"

Back to top

ISO Homecoming Reception

SUBMITTED BY ANDREA ARGUELLO, STUDENT

Want to know more about the International Students at Augsburg?

Come join us for the International Student Organization Homecoming Reception today from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. in the Minneapolis Room. Stop by, have some food and get to know the current international students at Augsburg!

A great opportunity to connect with other Auggies in an informal get-together.

Hope to see you there!

Back to top

Art Club General Meeting - TODAY

SUBMITTED BY KERRY MORGAN, COORDINATOR OF GALLERIES AND EXHIBITS, ART

Join us for pizza this afternoon at 5 p.m. in Old Main 6. We'll be making art and planning activities for the year. No previous art making experience required.

Back to top