Documentary on Immigration Politics, Oct. 22

SUBMITTED BY LUCRESHIA DENISE GRANT, STUDENT

"Prince William County, Virginia becomes ground zero in America's explosive battle over immigration policy when elected officials adopt a law requiring police officers to question anyone they have 'probable cause' to suspect is an undocumented immigrant."

Annabel Park's and Eric Byler's 9500 LIBERTY is a film that "reveals the startling vulnerability of a local government, targeted by national anti-immigration networks using the Internet to frighten and intimidate law makers and citizens. Alarmed by a climate of fear and racial division, residents form a resistance using YouTube videos and virtual town halls, setting up a real-life show down in the seat of county government." View the trailer:

Join the Feminist Collective and the Women's Resource Center for our first film of the 2010-2011 Feminist Film Series, in a viewing of 9500 LIBERTY, Tomorrow Oct. 22, 4:30-6:30pm in the Student Lounge!
