

how and why individuals and societies resist intolerance and stand up for democratic values. The 2014 programs will begin in Washington, D.C. at the Council on Foreign Relations and subsequently take place for four weeks in Amsterdam, Berlin, Copenhagen, Paris, and Warsaw.

Intensive and demanding, the Humanity in Action Fellowship features daily lectures and discussions with renowned academics, journalists, politicians, and activists, as well as site visits to government agencies, non-profit organizations, museums and memorials. Participation requires a great deal of intellectual curiosity and stamina, as well as the ability to work effectively in international teams.

After the program, participants join the global alumni network of Humanity in Action Senior Fellows and can take advantage of special professional fellowship opportunities, such as internship programs in the U.S. Congress and European Parliament.

Current sophomores, juniors, seniors, and graduates from the undergraduate classes of 2012 and 2013 are eligible to apply.

Applications are due on January 9, 2014.

For more information visit: <http://www.humanityinaction.org/programs/14-humanity-in-action-fellowship>

For application assistance contact URGO at: urgo@augsborg.edu

Back to top

Spring 2014 Book Orders

SUBMITTED BY LAURA FORGEY, BOOKSTORE MANAGER, BOOKSTORE

Spring 2014 Book Orders

I hope everyone is having a great semester.

The bookstore is requesting book orders or adoptions by Nov. 15, 2013. Please use the new Faculty Enight website to order your books and experience the benefits it has to offer you

The Faculty Enight website gives you the option to research and adopt materials in one convenient place. You are able to compare cost and identify format availability before adopting a book, also read peer reviews, and write your own. It allows you to access your past adoptions and order your desk copies. Since this is a new platform for faculty, we welcome feedback on improvements and changes. All registered faculty submitting their adoptions will be entered into a drawing for a $50 Barnes & Noble gift card. The drawing will be held on Nov. 16. The link for faculty light is <http://www.facultyenight.com/user> or you may visit our website and click on the faculty tab.

Please remember, if you do not need a book, I need to know that as well.

Back to top

Bioethics Summer Research Fellowship - Mayo Clinic

SUBMITTED BY XIA XIONG-VANG, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT URGO/STEM, UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AND GRADUATE OPPORTUNITY OFFICE

On behalf of the Mayo Clinic, URGO announces the 2014 Vann Fellowship for summer undergraduate research in biomedical ethics. This fellowship is highly competitive and each college may only endorse two applicants. Applications for Augsburg's internal competition are due November 12, 2013.

Program details:

- Work with physician and research mentors within Mayo's Program in Professionalism and Ethics
- 8-10 weeks of full-time research
- $5,000 stipend
- Research topics may include (but are not limited to):
 - Clinical ethics
 - Informed patient consent, competence, and dementia
 - Advanced directives, surrogate decision-makers, cultural values
 - Ethical issues in end-of-life care and life-sustaining treatments
 - Ethics in biomedical research, stem-cell research, and transplants

Qualifications:

- Enrolled in undergraduate courses for the fall of 2014
- Strong interest in biomedical ethics and/or clinical ethics (students with any major may apply)
- 3.50 GPA or higher recommended (if lower, contact urgo@augsborg.edu)
- Must be at least a sophomore standing

If you are interested in applying for the Vann Fellowship, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Research and Graduate Opportunities at urgo@augsborg.edu for application materials.

Back to top

Writing Lab Open Friday and Sunday of Fall Break

SUBMITTED BY KATHRYN SWANSON, PROFESSOR, ENGLISH

Please note that the writing lab will maintain regular hours (4:30-7 p.m) on Friday, Oct. 25 and 5-8 p.m on Sunday, Oct. 27. Come for help from the wonderful tutors.

Back to top

2013-14 NASA Space Grant Undergraduate Scholarship

SUBMITTED BY XIA XIONG-VANG, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT URGO/STEM, UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AND GRADUATE OPPORTUNITY OFFICE

On behalf of the Augsburg Space Grant Program, STEM program announces the 2013-2014 NASA Space Grant Undergraduate Scholarship. The scholarship supports the advancement of academically focused undergraduates seeking professional careers in the natural sciences, especially space physics and engineering, mathematics, and science/mathematics education.

Application Deadline: October 31, 2013

Submit Applications to stem@augsborg.edu or to SCI 154

Students are encouraged to apply if they are: