

If you are interested in studying abroad - and an internship! - in summer or Fall 2013, the deadline for applications is March 15. Contact Augsburg Abroad for more information on the application process. Gloria Xinico of CGE (xinicog@augsborg.edu) can answer any specific program questions as well.

In Mexico, students can earn credit for an internship in business, environmental studies, history, interdisciplinary studies, marketing, political science, religion, Spanish, women's studies or youth & family ministries. Students have worked with educational programs, health care entities, indigenous rights groups, and women's organizations. Former students have also been able to conduct internships in an international firm that provides consulting in the areas of development finance and corporate social responsibility.

In Southern Africa (a program that takes place in both Namibia and South Africa), students can participate in an internship to earn credit in Political Science, History, or Interdisciplinary Studies. Internship placements. Students have interned at organizations related to mass media/journalism, youth and family development, HIV/AIDS education, environmental conservation, and microfinance, among others.

Internship information can be found here: <http://www.augsburg.edu/global/internships/>

Join Campus Kitchen for Spring Break for 1-2 Hours

SUBMITTED BY BRIAN NOY, CAMPUS KITCHEN/COMMUNITY GARDEN, SABO CENTER FOR CITIZENSHIP AND LEARNING

Although most students are leaving for Spring Break, Campus Kitchen plans to have a normal week, delivering over 300 meals on 8 different shifts. Could you make two hours to join our shift leaders out in the community? It takes 1 to 2 hours, comes with a meal, utilizes your 16 hours of community service, and is a great way to see the good work our students are doing. To look at the calendar to see if something works for you, go to: www.augsburg.edu/campuskitchen/volunteercalendar

Nominate Someone for $1,000 Courageous Woman Award

SUBMITTED BY ADRIANE BROWN, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, WOMEN'S STUDIES

Do you know a woman who courageously strives for social justice and peace on campus or in the wider community? Someone who sees injustice and acts on it? Someone who raises her voice to champion women? If so, then nominate her for a Courageous Woman Award.

Award recipients are selected from a pool of nominations and receive a prize of $1,000. Anyone may propose a nominee but each individual may nominate only one woman per year. Eligible for nomination are women in the Augsburg student body, faculty, and staff as well as women from the Cedar Riverside neighborhood and the broader Twin Cities community. Nominations may be submitted through our website: <http://www.augsburg.edu/wrc/cwa/>.

The deadline for nomination is March 15, 2013. For questions about the Awards, please contact Adriane Brown at brownad@augsborg.edu.
