Paid Internship in China @ United Intl. College-UIC

SUBMITTED BY LEAH SPINOSA DE VEGA, DIRECTOR, AUGSBURG ABROAD, INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

College graduates (including May 2014 graduates) are warmly invited to apply for a one-academic-year Internship at UIC. Applications for the Intern position must be completed and submitted to UIC's International Development Office (international@uic.edu.hk) no later than February 14, 2014.

Requirements for the Application include:

1. Successful completion of a Bachelor's degree in any relevant programme.
2. A full transcript of academic work completed with a minimum overall GPA of 3.0.
3. Two letters of recommendation from academic staff supporting the application.
4. A full personal resume including an indication of which UIC position the applicant is applying for. This should detail what specific programme is of interest to the applicant, within the majors offered at UIC. The applicant should articulate the skills and experience he/she would bring to this specific UIC academic programme. General Education is also a viable academic area in which to pursue an Intern position. Please see the following website for more information on the academic curriculum at UIC: <http://uic.edu.hk/en/>
5. Additional information such as extracurricular activities, work experience, travel and special skills including computer/technology skills, which are important in assuming the role of a UIC Intern.
6. Agreement to enroll in a specially designed "Chinese Language, Culture, History and Development Programme" (see "Compensation for the Intern Position at UIC" below for details) offered by the Centre for Chinese Language and Culture (CLC) at UIC during applicant's year of residence at UIC.
7. An interview conducted by the Director of International Education (Leah Spinosa de Vega) at the home institution in which the applicant is enrolled. It is the applicant's responsibility to schedule this interview with the Director of International Education at his/her home institution. Appointments should be scheduled through abroad@augsborg.edu - Subject: UIC Internship Interview: Name. Include days and times you are available to meet. This interview should be conducted by January 31, 2014.

Positions available in the following areas:

English Language Center
Business and Management
Applied Translation Studies
Social Work and Social Administration
Applied Psychology
Computer Science and Technology
Environmental Science
Financial Mathematics
Food Science and Technology
Statistics

Compensation for the Intern position at UIC:

1. A monthly housing allowance (RMB1000, to be used, for example, for shared apartments with other TAs in Horizon Cove) will be granted; health insurance; and a round-trip economy airplane ticket from the applicant's home country to China of up to RMB11,000 ($1,800 US) on a reimbursement basis (reimbursement for the return ticket from China back to the applicant's home country is given upon successful completion of the contract) and ferry or bus fare from the airport to Zhuhai.
2. A monthly stipend of between RMB 5000 ($790 US) and RMB 6000 ($950 US) is paid from assumption of duties in August/September through the end of June. During this period, Interns must be involved in assigned duties and organizing activities (see requirements and responsibilities of Interns below).
