Congratulations Augsburg Concert Band

SUBMITTED BY TINAL BRAUER, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT, MUSIC

For the first time in just under 50 years, the Augsburg College Concert Band has been selected to perform at the Minnesota Music Educator's Midwinter Clinic. We are excited to feature a partnership with the Fridley High School Band as we perform at this event. We were selected through a blind audition process, competing with high schools, colleges, and universities in the upper Midwest.

Our performance will be the opening concert for the MMEA Midwinter clinic at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, February 13, 2014 at the Minneapolis Convention Center, Ballroom A. The performance is free and open to the public. Hope to see you there!

Christensen Vocation Lunch for Faculty/Staff

SUBMITTED BY LONNA FIELD, CCV PROGRAM COORDINATOR, CHRISTENSEN CENTER FOR VOCATION

Attention Faculty and Staff -

The Christensen Center for Vocation is pleased to invite you to our winter Vocation Lunch with Carol Enke on Wednesday, February 26 at 12:30 p.m.

Health and Physical Education Instructor Carol Enke will share reflections on her vocation journey in a talk entitled, "I Play to Get Paid." This event includes a complimentary lunch.

Any Augsburg staff or faculty may register for the event, but seating is limited, so RSVP promptly. Once the number of spots are filled, you may still sign up to be on the wait-list.

The registration link is available on our website: <http://www.augsburg.edu/ccv/vocationlunch/>

Note that all guests are encouraged to wear tennis shoes to the lunch.

We hope you will be able to join us to celebrate Carol's dedication to teaching, health, fitness, and wellness as well as to enjoy the many gifts of the Augsburg community!
