Speaking of Scholarship - Sabbatical Speed Orating

SUBMITTED BY ANKITA DEKA, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR, SOCIAL WORK

The CTL is hosting a Speaking of Scholarship "speed orating" event featuring the work from 2013-2014 sabbaticals. The presentations will be short and accessible across all disciplines, hence "speed orating." This will allow for attendees to hear about multiple research projects in an informal, roundtable discussion format. Please join us in celebrating your fellow colleagues' work.

Monday, March 30th
3:15-4:15 (3:15 hors d'oeuvres - 3:45 presentations)
Marshall Room

MFA Program Announces New Director, Derek Nikitas

SUBMITTED BY KATHLEEN MATTHEWS, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT - MFA/MBA, MFA CREATIVE WRITING PROGRAM

Derek Nikitas, the Edgar Award-nominated author of two novels, Pyres and The Long Division, both from St. Martin's Press, and Extra Lives, a Young Adult novel forthcoming from Polis Books, will join the Augsburg College MFA Program as the MFA's new program director, beginning in August 2015.

Nikitas will be in town for the AWP Conference April 9-11 and will visit the program during the Summer Residency.

He has served as the director of the low-residency MFA Bluegrass Writers Studio at Eastern Kentucky University, and has previously taught creative writing at the State University of New York at Brockport, and the University of Rhode Island.

His short fiction has appeared in The Ontario Review, Elery Queen Mystery Magazine, Chelsea, Washington Square, New South and elsewhere. He holds an MFA in Creative Writing from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and a PhD in English from Georgia State University.

Nikitas will succeed the Augsburg MFA's first director, Cass Dalglish, who will return to the classroom in the fall, continuing to serve as a mentor in the MFA and as a professor in the undergraduate creative writing program.

EDGE Scholarship Deadline Extended

SUBMITTED BY JANET MORALES, COLLEGE ACCESS PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM MANAGER, ENROLLMENT MANAGEMENT

The Travelers EDGE Program at Augsburg has provided professional development opportunities and scholarships to several Augsburg students over the course of the last 4 years. We are currently accepting applications from first year students.

Five students will be named Travelers EDGE scholars for the 2015-2016 academic year. Each Scholar will receive a $2,500 scholarship and have the opportunity to learn more about themselves and the Insurance and Financial Services industry by participating in several professional development workshops.
