

Interested in Study Abroad or Study Away in the USA?

submitted by stoddard@augsborg.edu

Have you thought about Study Abroad or Study Away in the USA? Attend one of our daily drop-in Info Sessions to hear about the basics and how you can get started. We cover how to choose a program, study abroad finances, academic credit, and more.

Come to the Oyate Commons, in the lower level of Christensen Center, for a 20-minute Info Session:

Mondays at 10:40 am

Tuesdays at 2:15 pm

Wednesdays at 10:40 am

Thursdays at 3:40 pm

Fridays at 1:45 pm

Check here for more info about Study Abroad/Away

📅 October 20, 2017 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

AugSTEM Fall Workshops (open to all STEM students): Identifying Graduate Opportunities 10/23

submitted by dores@augsborg.edu

Mondays, 12:30 – 1:40 PM or 3:10 – 4:20 PM

Marshall Room, Christensen Center

Similar content will be presented in each time period (12:30 or 3:10).

Pick whichever time works best for you.

Workshops are open to all interested students.

Join us!

Monday, Oct 23 Identifying Graduate Opportunities [URGO]

Next workshop:

Monday, Oct 30 Crafting Compelling Personal Statements [URGO]

📅 October 20, 2017 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

Kathy McBride's Retirement Celebration Thursday Oct 26

submitted by fitzgers@augsborg.edu

Please join the campus community in congratulating Kathy McBride on her 30 years of service to Augsburg University! Kathy is the Regional Co-Director of the Central America program for the Center for Global Education and Experience. In her time with Augsburg, Kathy has taught countless students from Augsburg and around the country on the Central America semester program as well as individuals learning about the region via short-term educational seminars. In addition to her service to Augsburg, all four of her children attended Augsburg, and two of them married fellow Auggies!

In all her work at Augsburg, Kathy has lead with a critical eye and a generous heart, always holding her students and Augsburg to the highest standard. Kathy is a caring colleague whose impact on Augsburg and its' legacy is far reaching.

Kathy will be on campus next week, so we will celebrate her in person! Students, staff, faculty and administrators are welcome.

Date: Thursday, October 26

Time: 3-4:30 pm

Location: Christensen Center, East Commons.

cake and coffee will be served.

📅 October 20, 2017 / ✉ Email a correction for this post