

undergraduate and graduate students, as well as the shorter summer experience for STEM undergraduates. Boren Scholars represent a vital pool of highly motivated individuals who wish to work in the federal national security arena. In exchange for funding, Boren Scholars commit to working in the federal government for at least one year after graduation.

If you are interested in learning more about Boren talk to one of our Boren Campus Representatives: (1) Andrea Dvorak, Assistant Director of Off-Campus Study, Center for Global Education and Experience or (2), Dixie Shafer, Director of Undergraduate Research and Graduate Opportunity (URGO). You should also visit www.borenawards.org.

📅 April 21, 2017 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

West Bank Greener and Cleaner-Earth Day Celebrations

submitted by truem@augsborg.edu

West Bank Clean-up: Friday and Saturday, April 21 – 22nd, 10am-12pm

In 2017 we're focusing on making the West Bank greener and cleaner, and what better weekend to celebrate that than Earth Day weekend?! Stop by our table April 21 or 22, from 10am-12pm. In addition to tasty snacks, we'll have information about garbage and recycling can adoption, neighborhood clean-ups, and graffiti removal. We'll also be distributing graffiti removal kits and supplies and will have sign-up sheets for hosted clean-ups.

Help us reach our targets! Our goals this year are: 5 more adopted trash cans, 10 NEW recycling cans, and 5 extra clean-ups.

Stop by for more information, to sign up, OR to pick up supplies for your earth day cleanup activities!

We'll be hosting a table out on the Cedar Cultural Center's Plaza.

Neighborhood Clean-ups: Saturday, April 22

Riverside Park 9:00am-11:30am (2820 S 8th St.)

Bluff Street Park 9:30am-12:00am (1 20th Ave S.)

Currie Park 1:00pm-3:00pm (500 15th Ave S.)

Lots of our neighborhood youth are volunteering for clean-ups, washing windows, and more! Following the clean-up activities, we will be hosting a dinner for volunteers. If you'd like to donate food or funds to help support recognition, please contact Coach Weber – jweber@crs-school.org.

And happy Earth Day!!!

📅 April 21, 2017 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

Honduran Writer and Singer On Campus Today

submitted by truem@augsborg.edu

Event featuring 2 amazing artists from Honduras... Melissa Cardoza and Karla Lara.

Friday, April 21st 1:50pm-3:00pm, Foss Studio

Melissa Cardoza's book "13 Colors of the Honduran Resistance" tells 13 stories of women who joined the resistance to the U.S. backed 2009 coup d'etat. Melissa is a fearless Afro-indigenous journalist, poet, writer, and feminist organizer from Honduras.

Melissa will be touring with her fellow member of the Honduran Red de Defensoras (or network of women rights defenders) and beloved jazz/folk protest singer Karla Lara, who appears in one of the book's stories and has been an icon and sharp voice for the resistance. Both of the women were close friends of Berta Cáceres, the Honduran indigenous leader and organizer of COPINH, who was assassinated for her work in defense of the Lenca people and against patriarchy, capitalism, and racism. This book and this tour are dedicated to Berta.