

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE IN MEXICO

Multiple 3-week course blocks, May to August

- Spanish classes, beginning to advanced: fulfills Modern Language Gen Ed, or electives for Spanish Majors and Minors
- SPA/ART 231: fulfills Fine Arts Gen Ed
- Internship and Independent Research opportunities
- Scholarships available

MEDICAL SPANISH AND INTERNSHIP

June 5 – July 21, 2019

- SPA 206: Spanish for Healthcare Professionals
- INS/SPA 399: Internship, Medical Observership
- Scholarships available

Learn more and apply online

📅 December 12, 2018 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

Monday, December 17 – Late Night Breakfast

submitted by garvey@augsborg.edu

It's late and it's breakfast! Monday, Dec. 17, 9:30pm to 10:45pm, Christensen Center, Commons. Free to students with Augsburg ID. Provided by A'viand's food service.

Students are invited/encouraged to bring items to donate to Augsburg's Campus Cupboard to help support other Augsburg students throughout the holidays.

Needed items include:

- Personal care items (shampoo, deodorant, tampons, etc.)
- Snack foods (granola bars, trail mix, chips, crackers, etc.)
- Jars of peanut butter and other nut butters
- Sandwich bread
- Canned chicken
- Jars of pasta sauce
- Cereal
- Granola
- Cheese
- Apples/bananas/oranges
- Ramen

📅 December 12, 2018 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

Fiesta de la Virgen de Guadalupe

submitted by schenko@augsborg.edu

Join Campus Ministry, Augsburg Latin American Students and Latinx Student Services, Religion Department, and Augsburg University Student Ministry in celebrating the Virgin of Guadalupe today in chapel at 10:40am. "Our Lady of Guadalupe has become an eminent image throughout Latin American and even North America and is often seen as an advocate for migrants and vulnerable populations across the Americas." Tamales served after.

Learn more

📅 December 12, 2018 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

Interfaith Discussion on Religion and Oppression

submitted by nguyenj@augsborg.edu