

research is going on in your department!

📅 January 30, 2018 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

Paid Fellowship for Trip to Holocaust Museum in Washington D.C.

submitted by berggg@augsborg.edu

The MINNE Holocaust Fellows program annually selects college students to participate in a fully-paid, one-day trip to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington D.C. to acquire a more in-depth knowledge of the Holocaust. Fellows tour the permanent exhibits and featured exhibits, as well as meet with a museum representative. Awards come through the MINNE Fund of the Minneapolis Jewish Federation, who has chosen Augsburg to be one of the select few universities to participate in the program. Multiple Augsburg students were selected last year for the trip.

The 2018 trip will take place on April 24th. Applications are due on February 28th and can be found at <http://jewishminneapolis.org/minne/>. If you would like to learn more about the program or would like advising on the application, please contact the URGO office at urgo@augsborg.edu or 612-330-1446.

Eligibility:

- U.S. Citizen
- Full-time student
- At least a sophomore and cannot be graduating before Spring 2019
- 3.0 GPA or higher

📅 January 30, 2018 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

Sesquicentennial Grants Available

submitted by tuchten@augsborg.edu

The Sesquicentennial Academic Sub-Committee is looking for project ideas and project leaders that will make the celebration of our Sesquicentennial year a special year for students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends of Augsburg. Funds are available for evocative projects of all kinds that reflect Augsburg's mission, academic excellence and community. The 150th anniversary will be celebrated between Homecoming 2019 and Homecoming 2020. Our aim is to have all Sesquicentennial projects identified by Spring 2018.

Submission Instructions:

Please submit all completed applications through the Google form (<https://goo.gl/forms/VW53VqWyuJSV5xMc2>). The links to the form will be on the Academic Affairs website (<http://inside.augsburg.edu/academicaffairs/resources/budget-compensation-personnel/augsburg-university-sesquicentennial-grant-call-for-proposals/>) and Sesquicentennial website (<http://www.augsburg.edu/150/>). Applications are due April 15, 2018 for consideration.

Contact Darcey Engen for more information. engen@augsborg.edu.

📅 January 30, 2018 / ✉ Email a correction for this post

Palestine & Israel: Summer study abroad program

submitted by yangss1@augsborg.edu

Study abroad for two weeks in summer 2018:

INTERFAITH ENGAGEMENT IN PALESTINE AND ISRAEL

Courses: RLN 205 or RLN 490. This program also fulfills Augsburg Experience

Join this two-week course to gain a transformational learning experience. You will be immersed in the Israeli and Palestinian contexts, particularly focusing on the three Abrahamic faiths – Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Through lectures, readings, and conversations you will deepen your understanding of the history, sacred texts, beliefs and practices of the three Abrahamic faiths. Particular attention will be given to the roots of conflicts in the region and to peacebuilding movements.